Art Work to be picked up on: Sunday, June 2, between 10 and noon

Please respect the time and dates shown as the gallery does not have storage space to protect art work before or after the show.

All exhibitors will be required to sign a contract upon entry into the show which also explains the rules of the show.

Members are expected to volunteer some of their time at the show during the month. It goes without saying that visitors like to meet the artists.
